

THE KING WILLIAM SCHOOLS
HOLD THEIR ANNUAL FAIR

Hundreds of Children Compete and Show Their Excellence in Studies and Sports.

GREAT CROWD IS PRESENT

Valuable Prizes and Trophies Awarded Winners in Various Departments—Opening of Pannunkey Ferry Occasion for Celebration.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WEST POINT, VA., April 22.—Inter-tribe this week in town was divided between the county school fair at King William Court House on Thursday, and the annual opening of the Pannunkey ferry at Sweet Hall on Friday. After work of faculty and all the children of school age in every district of King William County, the school fair was held. Each school had its exhibit and, in addition to the pride of both teacher and pupil in their respective schools, the valuable prizes offered in various departments spurred them on to greater effort. The first thing on the program for the day was a monster parade of the county schools, after which there were athletic and spelling contests, spectacular and folk dancing and the old, but ever interesting, winding the May pole. A trophy was given the school having the best attendance in the parade, and to the school making the best showing in the parade, the champion of the school and distance from the place of fair considered. A silver cup was given the school winning the largest number of points in athletics. A trophy was given the school giving the best spectacular act, and the school winning each spelling contest. The recipients of these honors have not yet been announced. Many well-attended basketball and picnic dinners added much to the enjoyment of the day. A great crowd showed their interest. The steamer Louise, automobiles, trains connecting with stages and all available conveyances were pressed into service for transportation.

No expense was spared to make a success of the official opening of the Pannunkey ferry at Sweet Hall. Everything to eat was provided free to all, and the menu called for old Virginia ham, fried chicken, roast, lamb and fish fried while you waited, fresh from the river. This is the first time the Virginia's most progressive steps. There were speakers morning and evening from a distance. Not only was the whole surrounding county present and active, but the money was well represented. Just one year ago this ferry was started, and much work had to be done. It will prove a great improvement and convenience for many. Another matter of great interest here was the lecture in the Masonic Hall auditorium on Wednesday evening by ex-Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League, looking to national prohibition. The largest audience ever in the auditorium greeted the speaker, and round after round of applause attested the spirit in which the address was received. The regular meeting of the Woman's Club was entertained by Mrs. R. J. Palmer this week. In the absence of the president, Mrs. J. W. Marshall, vice president, presided. The subject, "Egypt, History, Custom and People," was presented by Mrs. Samuel T. Bland. Mrs. M. T. Nichols furnished "current events" and these were discussed by many of the members.

Mrs. P. B. Bostic and two daughters, Misses Margaret and Bessie Phifer, left on Sunday for Richmond and, later in the week, attended the golden wedding celebration of Mrs. Bostic's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKinnay Harvey, at Columbia, Va. Rev. T. E. Lipscomb, of Gordonsville, has ruled the first of the series of preparatory to the series of revival services to begin on Sunday, conducted by Dr. Ayres, of the First Church, Newport News.

The King William Branch of the Equal Suffrage League met in the home of Mrs. Philip B. Rogers on Saturday. Mrs. B. Boston Barker, of Burlington, Vt., who is now in West Point, addressed the meeting and gave many interesting ideas which were also instructive. Mrs. Thomas P. Bagby talked on "Willie's Knowledge of Eugenic Beneficence." "Care for Women" buttons were ordered, also a number of unique postcards. The question of a course of study was discussed and approved. The league proposes to celebrate May Day.

P. B. Hughes accompanied his brother, Roswell Hughes, to his home, Sturges Draft, going in his car. Mrs. Hughes and two daughters, Misses Camilla and Phyllis, accompanied them as far as Richmond, where they will spend Easter with friends. Mrs. Jones, of Washington, who was well known in West Point as Miss Mabel Roberts, is spending Easter with her parents here. Mrs. J. W. Marshall, who has been on an extended visit in Baltimore with friends, is at home again. Her son, Jack Marshall, who is a student at the University of Virginia, is also at home on account of trouble with his eyes.

Mrs. Mary Sue Harris, who died here this week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tom Claxton, after several weeks' illness, was buried on Monday in Louisa County, where she formerly lived. She was a sister of the late Rev. L. A. Cutler, of the Christian Church.

After two weeks of illness, Garland Cooke, aged eleven years, died in his home here. He was buried in the local cemetery.

Albert Robinson is the latest candidate who has announced himself for the office of Mayor to be elected in June.

HOW TO GET RID OF CHRONIC DANDRUFF
The only sure way to get permanently rid of dandruff is to remove the conditions that cause it and then keep the hair and scalp in a clean, healthy, vigorous state, so dandruff will never return. This best shampoo, which merely removes the dandruff for a few days at most. Trade Dressing Co. now strongly recommending a harmless, inexpensive and quick acting preparation called Parisian Sage that is guaranteed to act directly on the cause of dandruff and which already has become generally known as a safe and efficient treatment which cannot possibly injure the hair or scalp. Here is a test no one should fail to try. Get a package of Parisian Sage from your druggist. Rub a little of it into the hair and scalp with the finger tips and see for yourself how quickly all dandruff disappears, the hair stops falling out and itching scalp immediately ceases. Even one application usually gives the hair a strong, healthy appearance. Nothing hurts the hair more than dandruff, so why not begin using Parisian Sage to-day and be forever rid of it?
